III. 3. NON-FRATERNIZATION POLICY

All employees must be careful that their off-duty activities do not negatively impact their job performance, and as a consequence, negatively affect the company's operations. Do not engage in behavior outside of work that will make it difficult to interact with your co-workers in a polite, professional manner.

A relationship between a supervisor and subordinate usually gives the appearance of favoritism. This is likely to lower morale, not because of the relationship itself, but because of the perception of inequality.

It is company policy to discourage romantic and sexual relationships between supervisors and employees. Romantic and sexual liaisons between management and hourly employees are not permitted during working hours and on company property, including in company housing.

If a romantic or sexual relationship between a manager and hourly employee develops, the two employees will not be permitted to continue working together. The manager needs to notify the owner and/or senior manager as soon as practicable. One of the affected employees may be transferred to another position, as determined by senior management, if another available job exists. If no suitable vacancy exists, one of the employees may be terminated.

All employees should also remember that the company maintains a strict policy against unlawful harassment of any kind, including sexual harassment. The company will vigorously enforce this policy consistent with all applicable federal, state, and local laws.

III. 4. HARASSMENT

The following, though not all-inclusive, is a list of various types of harassment.

1. Verbal Abuse - any language that degrades or berates others, including, but not limited to, racial, religious, or sexual comments, jokes, sexual innuendoes, or threats of any kind.
2. Physical Abuse - includes touching, hitting, slamming, throwing, kicking, or threatening another person, including restraining by force or blocking the path of another.
3. Interference or Hostile Environment - any behavior or action which interferes with an employee's ability to perform work assignments or which results in or creates a hostile or intimidating work environment.
4. Sexual Harassment - includes, but is not limited to, sexual advances, requests for sexual acts or favors and other physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

- (a) Verbal abuse;
- (b) Threats of withholding or withdrawal of pay, promotions, training or other employment opportunities.

Any employee who feels he/she is the victim of discrimination or harassment has a responsibility to report this to the Location Manager or other managerial personnel. Reporting of the incident should be made verbally or in writing to the Location Manager or the employee's direct supervisor immediately. A written complaint should include the specific nature of the incident, date and place of incident, names of all parties involved as well as a detailed report of all pertinent facts. Complaints of harassment will be promptly and carefully investigated. Investigations will include interviews with all relevant persons, including the accused and other potential witnesses.

Any employee, who, in good faith, files a complaint of harassment will be free from any and all reprisal or retaliation as a result of filing the complaint. Investigators will make every effort to strike a balance between the parties' desires for privacy and the need to conduct a fair and effective investigation.

Engagement in behavior deemed harassment shall subject an employee to disciplinary action up to and including termination. Likewise, there will be disciplinary measures if in fact it is determined that the incident and thus the accusation were fabricated.

III. 5. CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS

III. 8. EMPLOYMENT OF RELATIVES

Family members (relatives) of current employees may be considered for employment if:

- The applicant meets the requirements of the position and successfully completes the application process; and
- The hiring of the applicant will not create an actual or perceived conflict of interest.

IV. COMPENSATION

IV. 1. EMPLOYMENT CLASSIFICATION

Izaak Walton Inn and Eddie's Café and Mercantile categorizes all employees with respect to position and federal / state regulations. Summary definitions are:

- Exempt Employee - any salaried executive, administrative, professional, or contracted position. These employees are exempt from both the minimum wage and overtime provisions of FLSA.
- Nonexempt Employee - any salaried or hourly employee who is not exempt from the minimum wage or overtime provisions of FLSA.
- Salaried Employee - employee whose wages are computed on an annual basis.
- Hourly Employee - employee whose wages are computed on an hourly basis.

Employees are also classified as one of the following three:

- Full-time - any employee who is regularly scheduled to work 32 or more hours per week. Full-time employees are eligible for all standard Company benefits.
- Part-time - any employee who is scheduled to work less than 32 hours per week. Part-time employees are not eligible for standard Company benefits.
- Temporary (Seasonal) - any employee scheduled to fill a temporary job assignment that has a predetermined beginning and ending date. Temporary employees are not eligible for standard Company benefits

IV. 2. HOURS OF WORK

Because our businesses operate seven days a week, at least two shifts a day during the summer, scheduling work shifts is a complicated operation. Employees need to be scheduled in a fair manner; the business needs to keep its labor costs reasonable; overtime is to be minimized.

The work week runs from midnight Saturday night until midnight the following Saturday. A schedule of hours for each location, for both managers and hourly employees, will be prepared and released every Thursday.

Any variation from that schedule must be documented in writing and approved in advance by the Location Manager/Business Coordinator (in the case of hourly employees) or the Regional Director (in the case of salaried employees).

The expectation is that hourly employees work between 30 and 40 hours per week. Employees must be available for the work hours printed on the schedule approved by management. Not being available for the scheduled hours can be grounds for termination.

If you are ill, please do not report for work. It is hazardous to both your fellow employees and to our customers for people with contagious illnesses to be in the workplace. In the restaurants, it is an even more serious health hazard. In case of illness, please notify your manager at least two hours prior to the start of your shift, and they will make arrangements to replace you for that shift.

Salaried personnel are expected to work five days per week on the days and hours which are specified for them on the printed schedule. If salaried employees do not or cannot be present at work during their scheduled hours, they must get approval for that absence. They must then send the signed document or emailed approval to the company's administrative office for retention in their personnel files. Time taken off in excess of two days per work week must be either counted against a manager's paid time off, or taken as unpaid time off.

If a manager has a personal emergency or becomes ill, they need to notify the Regional Director as soon as they realize that they will not be able to work their scheduled shift. If the Regional Director cannot be reached within thirty minutes, notify the owner. Written documentation of the absence needs to be sent to the company's administrative office.

IV. 3. BREAKS

Employees working more than four (4) consecutive hours are provided a break when time permits, depending upon the workflow at the location. Break periods are not compensated time and each employee must clock out when going on break. Direct supervisors will determine employee break periods.

Breaks must be on a staggered sequence to insure an acceptable level of customer service at all times. Breaks for meals or snacks are not to be taken at customer tables. They should be taken in the designated area assigned at each location. All breaks should be cleared with the immediate supervisor.

IV. 4. Time Clock Procedures

You should arrive at the facility 10 to 15 minutes before you are scheduled to start work. Notify the Manager on duty that you have arrived for your shift. You may clock in within 5 minutes of the start of your shift. All hourly employees are given an employee ID number to clock in and out on the Location's timekeeping system.

Tampering, altering, or falsifying time records or recording time on another employee's ID number is not allowed and may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

IV. 5. OVERTIME

Employees are expected to work overtime when the need arises. Nonexempt employees will be paid time and one-half (1½) for work time that exceeds 40 hours during a scheduled workweek. Overtime expressly refers to more than 40 hours worked in a 7 day workweek. Exempt employees (management) are not eligible for overtime.

Holidays, sick leave, and vacations are not considered time worked for the calculation of overtime pay.

IV. 6. SALARY AND WAGE INCREASES

Salary and wage increases are granted on the basis of performance and/or promotion. All salary or wage increases will be reviewed and approved by corporate management.

IV. 7. PAYROLL

Per federal and state laws, withholding and social security tax will be withheld from each employee's pay or wages. If you have any questions regarding deductions from your pay, contact your Location Manager.

Payroll checks will not be released to anyone other than the employee without prior written authorization to the Location Manager. This includes the employee's family members.

Pay and compensation should only be discussed with members of management.

IV. 8. BONUS PLANS

From time to time, Izaak Walton Inn and Eddie's Café and Mercantile may institute bonus or incentive plans. Employees will receive details of any Bonus Plan or Incentive Plan as they are announced.

IV. 9. PERFORMANCE REVIEWS

Supervisors and/or managers will be responsible for employee performance reviews (appraisals). Performance reviews evaluate an employee's job performance, job-related strengths and job related weaknesses. The review is used to develop a plan for improvement, if needed. Performance reviews are also used to determine changes in job status and/or salary level.

An annual performance review (appraisal) shall be conducted with each employee. During these reviews the employee and the supervisor will outline the employee's performance strengths and areas requiring improvement. Each review will establish:

- Results desired by management;
- Action management will take to help the employee obtain these results;
- Actions the employee will take to improve deficient areas;
- A completion date for correcting those deficiencies.

The performance appraisal will be reviewed and approved by the supervisor. Appropriate salary increases (if any) or shifts lost will be granted once reviewed by the Regional Director of Operations. The written performance review will be retained in the employee's personnel file.

After three years of continuous employment, an employee is eligible to receive two weeks of paid time off.

Individual employee contracts can vary the above amounts of paid time off.

For hourly employees, paid time off will be expressed in hours. For salaried employees, paid time off will be expressed in days.

Time off, both paid and unpaid time off, must be requested by submitting a Time Off Request form to the employee's immediate supervisor at least 14 days prior to the desired time off start date.

The first week of paid time off accrues on the first anniversary of employment. After that, further paid time off accrues on January 1st of successive years of employment. If an employee's anniversary date occurs in the last quarter of the year, the second week of paid time off does not accrue until the following year.

Paid time off cannot be carried from year to year.
